This posting is the second part of an examination of the 2007 airplay received by Canadian performers as playlisted on the Folkdj-1 listserve.

The following information is gleaned from the complete surveys posted by Richard Gillmann found on his own website at <http://www.nwfolk.com> Richard cut off his albums list at 36 plays.

The date of release for particular albums and songs will have an impact on how much airplay they will attain in a given year. Several albums in the list below were released in the fall while others go back years, and in some cases, decades. Stan Rogers' "Between The Breaks...Live!" has appeared on this list for seven years and many others have appeared several times.

The following albums by Canadian performers received the most airplay on Folkdj-1 in 2007. As might be expected, these albums feature many of the songs in the top song list to follow.

Uncle Earl's "Waterloo, Tennessee" was the #1 international album with 399 plays. Jory Nash's "Folk Jazz Blues And Soul" came in at #12. It's worth noting that on last year's list, The Wailin' Jennys' "Firecracker" came in at #1 and The Duhks' "Migrations" came in at #2.

Albums noted with a * after the number of plays, appeared on last year's list.
