- > Blue Bones — the newest CD from Yukon singer/songwriter Kim Beggs and her debut on Black Hen Music — delivers on the promise of her first two critically acclaimed albums 'Wanderer's Paean' and 'Streetcar Heart'
- > Blue Bones is produced by Juno Award winning producer Steve Dawson and features an all-star lineup of musicians including John Raham (Be Good Tanyas) on drums, Keith Lowe (Bill Frisell) on bass, Chris Gestrin on keyboards, and Gurf Morlix and Laurie Lewis contributing backup vocals
- > Kim Beggs has won several awards including a Canadian Folk Music Award, a Western Canadian Music Award, and a Porcupine Award for Find of the Year. She has also been nominated for a Just Plain Folk Award (US), represented the nation at Canada Day celebrations in London's Trafalgar Square and, most recently, was a nominee in CBC Radio's Songquest competition.
- > Blue Bones features nine original tracks as well as four well chosen cover songs. Beggs offers a stunning version of the old traditional, 'I'm Thinking of My Blue Eyes' that will melt the most cynical of hearts as well as interpretations of classics from Bob Dylan, Patty Griffin, and Jack Clement that are sung in such a way that they sound as if she wrote them herself.
- > Like all of Kim Beggs' music, the songs on Blue Bones authentically capture the rustic charm of the Canadian north, and allow people down south to experience the vicarious thrill of life in the outback from the comfort of their homes or a seat in a concert hall.
- > Kim Beggs is an original talent who makes music that transcends style and fashion. Without so much as a backward glance at what others consider 'hip', she instead makes music that is true. Bold, brilliant, dark and sincere, Blue Bones is destined to become one of the most memorable roots releases of 2010.
